

HOME TO BED

The Scaynes Hill Song

Words by Vera Cumberlege

Music by Guthrie Foote

ALL

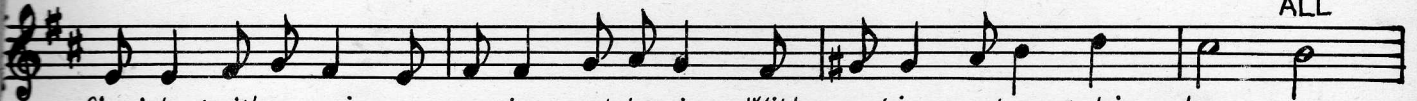

1. Home to bed, that's where we'll go, For St. George has fought and won.

SOLO

All go home, there's nought to fear, For the dra-gon will harm no - one. We've fin-ished with prancing, ram-pag-ing and dancing, With pecking and scratching too; so

ALL

Home to bed, that's where we'll go, For St. George has fought and won.

MEN

2. Don't scream if you should meet the dra-gon in Luckens' or Main's.

CHILDREN

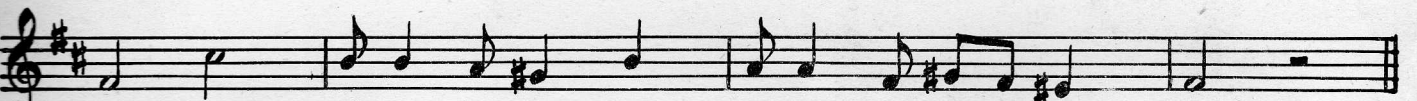

He'll just smile and chat a - while When he pass-es you in the lanes. He's friendly with Daweses, Sopps, Boxes and Haweses, With Henleys and Warners too; so

ALL

Don't scream if you should meet the dra-gon in Luckens' or Main's.

(Repeat verse 1)
